To prepare well for a round of golf you should arrive at the golf course at least an hour before your tee time . Start on the practice green where you can establish a smooth, deliberate tempo. Don't putt at the cup, but at tees, or coins, or just a spot on the green. Focus on speed control and tempo.

Because your keys are split between the backswing and downswing, you can start with the first key, then shift your mind to the second in mid-swing. Your practice swings should be a little slower than the swing you'll take at the ball. This will give your mind time to go through both keys, ensuring that your body does as it's commanded.
