In addition, patriotism is a rational love, since civic virtue is instrumental to the preservation of law and order, which is the prerequisite of our liberty.
The question we must address is how to make our particular love of one's own country compatible with the universal principles of liberty and justice.

Love of country is an exceptional feeling. We all feel blessed for having a land of our own. We celebrate this independence, explode fireworks and so on. There are countless sacrifices of our ancestors behind it. What we all need is to be thankful for having an independent land and value its worth. We all have a patriot in ourselves, just keep it awake.

It is neither precisely an emotion nor an opinion, nor a mandate, but a state of mind -- a reflection of our own personal sense of worth, and respect for our roots. Love of country plays a part, but it's not merely love. Neither is it pride, although pride too is one of the ingredients. Patriotism is a commitment to what is best inside us all.
