The Strangers are an American country band that formed in 1966 in Bakersfield, California. They mainly served as the backup band for singer-songwriter Merle Haggard, who named them after his first hit single "(My Friends Are Gonna Be) Strangers". In addition to serving as his backing band, members of the Strangers also produced many of Haggard's records, sang lead vocals on select tracks, and ...

There is one last choice. I had a friend that was awkward when speaking to strangers so I went up to a random person and showed her how it's done. My friend then practiced with a different random person and then after we were both comfortable we both went up to the person we originally wanted to talk to together.
